

MARCELLA BARCELÓ

b. 1992 Majorca, Spain; lives and works in Paris

ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Marcella Barceló's painting is infused with her deep connection to Japanese culture, the realm of manga, popular illustration, and references to decorative painting of Bonnard, Vuillard, and Maurice Denis, but rendered in fluorescent colors against dreamlike backgrounds. Her universe draws influence from Lewis Carroll, by the Mono No aware - an aesthetic and spiritual concept of which haikus are a literary form - and by a disturbing metaphorical strangeness through the recurring figure of a ghostly woman.
